

ALL "SITUATIONS WANTED FEMALE" ADVTS. IN THE WORLD REPEATED IN THE EVENING WORLD WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

Over 500,000 Circulation Secured.

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE MAYOR RETURNS TO THE CITY.

A political cartoon by T. E. Brown. A man in a dark suit, white shirt, and bowler hat is walking away from a city. He is carrying a briefcase labeled "MAYOR STRONG" and a bottle labeled "SULPHUR WATER". The city he is leaving is labeled "LOUISIANA CITY". The cartoon is signed "T. E. Brown" in the bottom right corner.

NIGHT EDITION.

BIG STRIKE OF TAILORS ON.

More Than 16,000 Brotherhood Workers Fight the Task System.

OTHER CITIES TO FOLLOW.

It Is Claimed that the Contractors Have Broken Last Year's Agreements.

DISTURBANCES IN BROOKLYN.

Police Called Out to Disperse a Mob of 1,000 Window Breakers.

—

The long-expected strike of the Brotherhood Tailors is on to-day in earnest. More than 16,000 persons engaged in the making of coats of all kinds are

The strike, it is claimed by the workers, was caused by eighty contractors locking out nearly 1,000 workmen, and also by the failure of the contractors to live up to the agreement made with the Brotherhood last Fall when a general

The men and women on strike includ operators, tailors, finishers, pressers, bushellers, basters, buttonhole-makers, fellers and thread pullers. Of the 16,000, 8,000 are in this city, 6,000 in Brooklyn and Brownsville, 1,200 in Newark where the strike was ordered this morning, and 300 Lithuanian tailors in this city and East New York.

"We have done all we could to avert this strike," said Meyer Schoenfeld, General Organizer of the United Garment Workers and leader of the

"We asked the Contractors' Association to stick to the agreement and not force our members into the old trade force our members into the old tax system again, but they would not listen to our appeals, and locked out our members and shut down their shops and failed to pay money honestly earned.

"Repeated warnings failed and we were forced to strike. We will win this strike as we did that of last year when we broke the lock-out."

and had our members employed at minimum scale of wages, ranging from $9 to $15 a week of sixty hours. Now

We ask for a renewal of the agreement of Sept. 15, 1894, with a reduction of one hour only, so as to give our members time to do necessary shopping on the 15th.

A general mass meeting is to be held

A Settlement Committee is in session continually at New Windsor Hall and is prepared to settle with any con-

Mr. Schoenfeld said that tailors' strikes would also occur in Chicago, Bal-

There are 100 contractors who have shops in tenement houses, where the Brotherhood men and women were employed. It is the intention of the Union to break up these sweat shops and Secretary Witkowski, of the Contractors' Mutual Protective Association.

tion, at 230 East Broadway, said that the members of that body had not locked out their men, and he laid the responsibility for the strike on the Brotherhood.

"We have not brought about this trouble," he said, "and have always been willing to meet the union half-

A big meeting of the strikers was held in Waltham Hall, 59 Orchard street, this afternoon, and was orderly. Several

A Knight of Labor tailor went into the saloon of New Washington Hall which adjoins Waltham Hall, and began an argument with a crowd of Brotherhood strikers. A fight ensued, during which the foolhardy man was roughly handled. Policeman No. 1781, of the Elldridge street station, stopped the row but some one sent word to the station that a riot was in progress, and a squad of police was sent, only to find

At 2 o'clock a big crowd collected in front of the entrance to Jacobs & Son's tailor shop, Grand and Orchard streets.

and threatened to "do up" the boss and several non-union hands, but the police man on the beat scared them off. Some one also carried word to the Eldridge street station that a riot was in progress at Jacob's place, and a squad was sent there with a result similar to that at New Washington Hall.

(Continued on Third Page.)